Closing in on the Seventh-Month Feasts

Hard to believe, but the Feast of Tabernacles (9/23 to 10/2) is less than five weeks away! If you have not sent in your reservation, we suggest you do so immediately. YRM has reserved three extra cabins at the main camp at Shakamak for the inevitable latecomers. You can access all pertinent Feast information, including online registration, at: <http://www.yrm.org/registerforfot.htm>. In the next five weeks our office at Holts Summit will become a flurry of activity as preparations launch into overdrive. Tons of planning and hard work go into holding a Feast, made more complicated when it is held far away from home. Local volunteer brethren help lighten the load as they always do when a need arises, and we are grateful for them. We have seen Tabernacles grow in numbers and complexity over the past 11 years, and we have also been moved to witness Yahweh work in the lives of those who attend. We pray you will let Him work in yours. Join us next month in Indiana as you prove faithful to His command (Lev. 23).

ReFormatted News-Magazine Hits the Stands

If you were getting the old newsletter in the mail, YRM News and Reports, then you should automatically be receiving its replacement, our new magazine called Restoration Times. It was mailed out a couple of weeks ago. If you are not and you would like a free subscription, you can sign up and read the July-August issue online at: www.restorationtimes.org

Four Booklets Refitted This Week

We have now revamped into the larger size and provided full color covers to the following booklets: Lunar Sabbath Illusion, The Amazing Biblical Feasts, The Timing of Passover, and The Poor Widow's Challenge. Only a few booklets have yet to be remade. You can see what has been done by visiting

Watch Previous Sabbath Services

Because so many depend on our Sabbath messages for worship, we do our best to edit and upload the previous week's service as promptly as possible. We post these videos to Facebook and our video archive website, not to mention numerous media sites online. Our media team usually has the internet bogged down throughout the week as they upload these valuable messages to reach the many scattered around the world. Watch last week's service and thought provoking message: "The Pearl of Great Price."

TEST YOUR TUTELAGE

Why was the name of the great fall Feast changed from "Ingathering" to "Tabernacles"

(Booths/Tents)?

- A. Booths would add a memorable touch to the Feast experience.
- B. It would be a keen reminder of the 40 years wandering in the wilderness.
- C. Tentmakers like Paul would have more business.
- D. The practice of celebrating the Feast in tents took on a life of its own.

The fall Feast was first called "Ingathering" in reference to the fall harvest (Ex. 23:16; 34:22). After Israel refused to take the Holy Land, Yahweh caused the Israelites to wander for 40 years in the wilderness (Num 14:33). Leviticus 23:42-43 reads: "Ye shall dwell in booths seven days ... That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt ..." The booths they employed were never meant to be permanent dwellings. They became a grave inconvenience for a people raised in Goshen. Likewise, we may think the consequences of sin will be temporary, but in fact they last far longer than we could imagine.
