New Building Awaits Springtime, Needed Resources

With warmer weather on the way, we hope to resume work on the new office structure at Holts Summit. We are hamstrung in a variety of ways because of a lack of space for such things as a versatile video studio for producing not just TV programs but also documentaries on various doctrines—a kind of "video brochure" complete with explanatory graphics, charts, and photography. A complete sight and sound presentation that will increase understanding and effectiveness exponentially. Also needed is a publication printing room and large mailing room to handle the large volume of requests we have been receiving. But we can only proceed with the funds available. If you would like to see this ministry take a quantum leap in effectiveness, please consider these needs. View the video we have produced explaining this need.

Literature Improvements in Works

We are planning to redesign most of the cover art on our printed booklets. The brochures will have full-color graphics that we believe will enhance their attractiveness and make them more appealing and desirable to read.

Website Bible Study Resources

We are working on a resource page for yrm.org that will access the Strong's Concordance from our website and online Bible search for 14 translations through the Blue Letter Bible. There is also word searches for the Gesenius Hebrew Lexicon, Thayers Greek Lexicon, Encyclopedia.com, Dictionary.com and Wikipedia search. Once our new study Bible is online we will have a keyword search on this page for that as well. Click here to access this new resource page! We have most of this completed and working. Check back as we add more resources and don't forget to bookmark this valuable page for your studies and to forward this page to all your Bible study friends.

'Experts' Say Homosexuals Are Born That Way

Q: Homosexuality is not sinful because Yahweh made homosexuals just like He made heterosexuals. Homosexuality is wrong only when practiced by a heterosexual.

True
False

Yahweh made humans "male and female" and authorized a male and female to come together as one flesh in the marriage relationship. The scriptures never suggest that anyone is born homosexual or has no choice but to practice homosexuality. A small minority may have homosexual urges, but that does not mean they must act on those urges and cannot overcome them. A person might have an urge to start fires but that does not give him the okay to practice destructive pyromania. From teenage years onward practically everyone has sexual urges, but that does not mean they are allowed to fulfill those urges in any way other than a man and a woman in marriage. We all often experience desires that are wrong, but having the desire does not imply Yahweh allows us to fulfill that desire, 1Corinthians 6:15-20. ANSWER: B
