Marathon Session Yields Six TV Programs

Last Sunday Elder Alan Mansager, Deacon Randy Folliard and Bro. Michael Banak from Chicago sat down before the television cameras in a marathon Discover the Truth recording session. Six 30-minute question-and-answer programs were made in the five-hour sitting.

Questions answered by the panel included: Why do you keep the Feasts when you don't use animal sacrifices?; If 1 Corinthians 10:25 deals only with meat sacrificed to idols, since when did heathens use just clean meats properly drained of blood at slaughter?; explain Romans 14 in light of the Feast days; shouldn't the new moons be observed and taught; did Abraham keep the Sabbath as you do? do you have funds available for helping those in need?

The television programs answering these and many more questions and issues will be available on our Discover the Truth website as each is edited and uploaded. Click the video image

Feast Day Calendar 2010 Completed

The Biblical calendar for the new secular year is complete and online. Online calendar It features all of the year's Feasts, monthly new moons and new moon data to assist you in sighting the thin crescent. A couple of the new moons will be extremely difficult to see, but we went with the early projection with the notation that they may be seen the next evening. Use the calendar to plan for time off from work or school and in preparing for each holy day.

As mentioned in last week's e-news, we had hoped to be able to send a couple of representatives from YRM to the Holy Land in March to observe the Abib barley and do other work there, but it appears that funds will not be available for this purpose.

TEST YOUR TUTELAGE

When was capital punishment for murder instituted in The Bible?

- A) When Cain Killed Abel
- B) After Noah's Flood
- C) The giving of The Law at Mount Sinai
- D) The Tower of Babel

Capital punishment was actually outlawed when Cain killed Abel (see Genesis 4:15). This ban continued until the time of Noah's flood, after which capital punishment was formally announced for Noah's time onward (Gen 9:6). Since then, with few exceptions, all nations have had capital punishment of some kind or another. Answer: (B).
