New Discover the Truth Explores Dispensationalism

Is the Bible chopped up into different eras? Did Yahweh deal differently with His people the ancient Israelites from what He expects of us, His people today? Is the "Old" Testament the "Bible for just Jews" while the New is only for the modern worshiper? Are Yahweh's laws required only for the Jewish dispensation and not for today? Are the Jews just servants, while Christians are the chosen ones in today's dispensation? If you would like to understand this doctrine and the vast errors it espouses, then the latest Discover the Truth program is for you. It can now be viewed on the Discover the Truth Website. ### New Calendar for 2010

We are in the process of projecting the calendar, including the holy days, for 2010. We will have it online by the first of January and in print format soon thereafter. We were hoping to send a few brothers over to Israel this spring to check on the barley for Abib and shoot footage of the country for television and other video uses, but it appears that a lack of finances will keep us home unless Yahweh opens doors to make this trip possible.

Day of No-El

The Xmas observance is now history for another year. If you have not read our Web article, Christmyths, we urge you to do so. Share it with those who show a dissatisfaction with the observance. Jeremiah 10:2 says, "Thus saith Yahweh, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not. They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good." Millions sense something isn't right with the holiday but are too timid to make a break with it. We believe this Web article will help some with the fortitude to make that decision. What is true is true. The rest is just excuses.

Lessons in Punishment

The civil laws in Exodus 22 make frequent mention of "restitution," "restore," and "pay" in the context of remediating criminal conduct. What is the basic meaning of the one Hebrew word from which these are translated?

- A) Penalty
- B) Wholeness
- C) Revenge
- D) Justice

The Hebrew word "Shalom" is found 15 times in Exodus 22. It has been translated restitution," "restore," "pay," and "make good." Its fundamental meaning is to make whole. In each case, the offender and his victim are bonded socially through the restoration of that which was stolen, damaged or neglected while on-loan, plus a penalty. A mending of the social fabric followed. The Law of Yahweh makes no provision for jails, where the victim experiences only an empty sense of revenge while the offender rots behind bars. Modern American law limits "restitution" to simply restoring what was stolen. In Yahweh's Law, restitution involves some extra penalty as compensation for the victim's trauma and a punishment for the wrongdoer. The goal is social wholeness, not revenge. This mirrors the plan of salvation in a nutshell! Answer: (B)
